

FROZEN PRODUCTS Packing Instructions

Instructions for 10"x16" square with ½" insulation – 10 units per box maximum.

- Place absorbent material on bottom.
- Add a layer of dry ice.
- Place boxed units in single layer, either on edge or on end. Do not lay flat.
- Add Dry Ice; the amount should be equal or greater than the amount of frozen product.
- Add bubble wrap to hold units in place during transport.
- Place silver box top in place.
- Place copy of shipping documents on top of inner box top. Close cardboard flaps and tape closed.
- Place destination card in protective clear envelope attached to box.
- Add Dry Ice label to outside of box.
- Boxes packed according to these instructions have been validated to retain acceptable temperature for a minimum of 24 hours from time packed.

Instructions for 16"x16" square with 1½" insulation - 20 units per box maximum

- Place absorbent material on bottom.
- Place boxed units in single layer, either on edge or on end. Do not lay flat.
- Add Dry Ice; the amount should be equal or greater than the amount of frozen product.
- Add bubble wrap to hold units in place during transport.
- Place silver box top in place.
- Place copy of shipping documents on top of inner box top. Close cardboard flaps and tape closed.
- Place destination card in protective clear envelope attached to box.
- Add Dry Ice label to outside of box.
- Boxes packed according to these instructions have been validated to retain acceptable temperature for a minimum of 24 hours from time packed.